RAPPER RADRIC DAVIS AKA 'GUCCI MANE' CHARGED WITH BATTERY

DeKalb County Solicitor-General Sherry Boston announced today the formal accusation of RADRIC DAVIS aka 'Gucci Mane' for allegedly intentionally causing physical harm to a woman by pushing her out of a moving vehicle. He has been charged with Battery, Reckless Conduct, and Disorderly Conduct.

"The conduct with which this defendant has been charged shows a willful disregard for a woman's personal safety," said Solicitor-General Boston. "This Office takes these charges seriously and believes that no person is above the laws that protect the citizens of DeKalb County."

The defendant was in court this morning for a potential arraignment. However, his lawyer was not present and the defendant asked for the case to be reset.

Defendant Information:
Radric Davis, DOB 2/12/1980
Atlanta, GA

Charges:
Two counts of Battery
Two counts of Reckless Conduct
One count of Disorderly Conduct

If convicted, each charge is punishable by up to 12 months in jail and a $1,000 fine.
